

GUEST of a GUEST

6 Places To Get Lobster In The Hamptons

By Jessica Dignam | Aug 21, 2012 8:02 AM | Restaurants

Nothing says "fine-dining" quite like lobster on a summer day. Finding fresh lobster, however, can be quite a challenge. But if you're spending time in the Hamptons before the summer comes to a end, you have to check out these six amazing locations that serve the best lobster you can find!

Bostwick's Chowder House

Bostwick's is all about "casual local seafood in a laid-back setting" in the East Hamptons. Owned by childhood friends Chris Eggert and Kevin Boles, Bostwick's is all about friendship and consistency. Serving the same tried-and-true fresh local fish, Eggert and Boles have it down to a science. Once you try Chris's cooking and Kevin's cocktails, you'll keep coming back!

Bostwick's Chowder House, 277 Pantigo Road East Hampton

[Photo via]